

Upward Bound Orientation Day

Tentative Agenda • Saturday, May 17, 2008

- 10 a.m. Students and Parents/Guardians of new students arrive
Forms will be collected and the Student Handbook and Parent/Guardian Guide will be distributed
Welcoming Remarks
- 11:00 Parents/Guardian Slide Presentation and Question & Answer Session
Students participate in ice breaker games and Leadership Workshops for new and returning students
- 12:00 Students re-join the Parent/Guardian group for a brief introduction to the UB nutrition philosophy before heading next door to Holloway Commons for lunch
- 1:00 Parents/Guardians depart or may choose to participate in a campus tour led by Lisa Hamcha
-
- Students divide into small groups for games and an introduction to key program values and expectations and a campus tour.
- 3:00 Students reunite as a large group to complete some forms and self-assessments
- 3:30 Concluding discussion
- 4:00 Students depart on buses to Somersworth, Rochester, Raymond or Manchester

Bus schedule:

Good news, we now provide bus service to Somersworth! The other stops remain the same. First Student is that company that UNH UB has hired to provide bus transportation.

Morning departure times:	8:45 Manchester (Corner of Wall & Elm)	8:45 Somersworth (Somersworth High)
	9:15 Raymond (McDonald's)	9:00 Rochester (Brock's Building Supplies)
	Afternoon arrival times:	4:45 Raymond (McDonald's)
	5:15 Manchester (Wall & Elm)	5:15 Somersworth (Somersworth High)

If you prefer to drive yourself to campus, you may park in UNH lots labeled Student or Faculty/Staff since it is on the weekend. Note that the town of Durham enforces parking rules on Saturdays, so look for one of the UNH lots mentioned. UNH UB will not reimburse you for any parking tickets you receive.